Celebrating freedom and the dawn of a new year...

Sixty five years ago my island home celebrated! In 1940 German forces invaded the Channel Islands. For five years islanders were under enemy control. In May 1945 British troops arrived - a new era of freedom had dawned. On May 9th this year Guernsey celebrated 65 years of liberty.

The Bible teaches that all of us are, or have been, under enemy control. We all need to be freed from the power of sin in our lives. We also need to be absolved from the consequences of wrongdoing - for we are taught by God that It is appointed unto man once to die and after death the judgment.

Chapel members were saddened that our friend Pastor Kinderman of Mayfield Baptist Church died following a road accident. Although sorrowful, we know that for him death was the dawn of a glorious new day full of greater happiness and satisfaction than is possible in this life. Years ago he realized he was a sinner. He repented and believed on the Lord Jesus who was punished for his sins. He had everlasting life for God assures us that Whoever calls on the name of the Lord will be saved - and this is certainly what he did! He had no other hope!

Ever since its formation in 1784 the Chapel has proclaimed the good news that - Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, and that He was buried, and that He rose again the third day according to the Scriptures. A wonderful message! Saturday 19th June, our Chapel Anniversary, marks the dawn of another year. Please come!

We hope you will join us for services whenever you can - transport can be arranged if this is a problem.

Sincerely,

George Rabey (Pastor)
